

Fun stuff in the mailbox today - my order of floss from The Workroom arrived. I now have everything I need to make the March and April designs in the Dessert of the Month Club. The little collection above is the colours I'll be using to make this cute St. Patrick's Day cake-pop . April's design is still a mystery but the colours for it are below. I'm thinking maybe something caramelly ... with a mint leaf to explain the green.
